Pileated Woodpecker

This woodpecker drums on trees to claim territory and attract a mate. The sound is so loud, it's like a mallet hitting a tree.

Red-headed Woodpecker

This is the only woodpecker with an entirely red head.

Flying Squirrel

Flying squirrels glide from tree to tree with the aid of a furry, parachute-like membrane that stretches from wrist to ankle.

How many species of woodpeckers
live at West 11th Street Park?
